NOTES: (See next page.)

NOTES:

- None of the above expenditures are associated with CUSD's 1970's Abuse litigation.
- The State's original unanimous decision, in Dec. 2023, requires the District to reinstate the Union President and compensate him for all lost wages, STRS contributions, and legal fees (Thus, approximately over 1 million dollars in accrued debt still owed by the District)
- The 'Grand Total' does not include the accrued debt owed by CUSD and cited in the previous bullet, which comes due after the District's appeal has concluded.
- @ the Dec. 2023 Board Meeting: Rigby confirms that CUSD spent "2.5 Million" trying to remove the Union President. (The discrepancy can be attributed to other factors - CUSD uses law firms other than FFF, there are several hidden costs, such as admin time & resources, etc.)
- Since the State's original unanimous decision in favor of the Union President (Dec. 2023), CUSD has sued the State and spent over $500,000 to APPEAL the decision.
- Annual legal fees upon Ms. Rigby's arrival (2017) were approx.. $170,000 / year. In the last 3 years, they have averaged well over $1,000,000
- The cost of 1% on the salary schedule(CERTIFICATED & CLASSIFIED) is approx. $200,000
- $3,500,000 (the approximate value of monies spent and debt accrued by CUSD) is equivalent to a 17.5% is salary increases for ALL District employees
